Honorable William Webster
Director of Central Intelligence
Central Intelligence Agency
Washington, D.C. 20505

Dear Judge Webster:

One of my constituents was wondering about this maximum age of 35 years for the Central Intelligence Agency ad which appeared recently in the Indianapolis Star.

Could you elaborate about the age restriction?

Warm congratulations on your new assignment. Our country is the better for it.

Sincerely,

ANDY JACOBS, JR.

CENTRAL INTELLIGENCE AGENCY

...where your career is America's strength.

Unique overseas assignments that challenge your every talent.

We are not talking about a job, but a unique professional career that provides an uncommon measure of personal challenge and satisfaction. And the work is important. It answers the question: "What can I do for my country?"

It is a career with new horizons. You will frequently live and work in foreign lands and interact with persons on all levels.

You will find yourself in situations that will test your self-reliance to the utmost; situations that demand quick thinking to solve problems on the spot.

You can forget about a 9 to 5 routine. You must be adventurous yet self-disciplined and tough-minded. And your assignments will call on the deepest resources of your intelligence, knowledge and responsibility.

To those who qualify, we provide the opportunity to succeed. Not for public applause. But for yourself and our nation.

Qualifications

...in the CIA demands a

- a college degree with good academic record
- flexibility
- excellent oral and written communications

You must have U.S. citizenship and a knowledge of foreign affairs.

Travel, previous residence abroad, graduate study, or military service would be pluses.

Career Growth

You will begin with our extensive career training program at a salary range between $22,000 and $34,000 depending on qualifications. Thereafter, you will be promoted as rapidly as your talent and performance permit.

To explore a career with us, start by sending a letter with resume referring to the above specific qualifications, along with a thoughtful explanation of why you believe you qualify. Include your day and evening phone numbers. WRITTEN inquiries only. We will respond to those judged to be of further interest within 30 days.
